

Korean-Language Human Trafficking Research

Project Title	Korean-Language Human Trafficking Research
Project Summary	Research and analyze current human trafficking trends and governmental responses to combat trafficking in South Korea to contribute to background information for the Trafficking in Persons Report.
Country	United States
Country/Region of Focus	Korea

Project Description

Research media reports, academic and NGO reports, government websites, and other open source materials in Korean (required) on human trafficking in South Korea including trends, government actions, ongoing cases, and challenges. The incumbent will research, analyze, and translate relevant materials. The incumbent's analysis will inform policymakers and contribute to the knowledge base of analysts working in the Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons.

Required Skills or Interests

- Skill(s)
- Analytical writing
- Editing and proofreading
- Political Analysis
- Research
- Writing

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
Korean	Minimum professional proficiency	Full professional proficiency	Required